

Week 2. Day 3.

Hopefully you took a day off after the first workout...

The first thing you need to do is watch this Video on Tyson Slipping... this video tells you a bunch of useful stuff about this particular movement.

Then, watch this video on how to build a fluid hook, necessary for punch follow through... (I pulled it from my YouTube channel).

Then... do this workout, which you can also download by clicking here.
